Greenbrier Horse Show Attraction At White Sulphur

Many Exhibitors Compete in Annual Fixture With Fine Collection of Hunters.

Special Disputch to THE NEW YORK HERALL WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va., Aug. 19 .- The culminating point of the August season was the Greenbrier Society Horseshow held yesterday at the horseshow grounds and attended by the entire summer colony, who filled the boxes and bleachers. Many beautiful costumes were worn by the women, and the scene was a gay and colorful setting for the Vicginia bred hunters and jumpers, winners of numerous blue ribbons and trophies, that made up the bulk of the showing and around which

Miss Carroll Smith of Philadelphia attracted much attention by her horsemanship, putting her hunter over jump after jump without stirrups. Mrs. B. Welr of New York and Charleston, Edward Stewart of East
